A Word From Mr.R.Newton

“As we come to the end of the first half term of this academic year, I would like to personally thank all our families for their support. Without it we would not be able to achieve what we do with our young people. We look forward to seeing you in person next term. If, in the meantime, you have any questions or queries please do not hesitate to contact school.”

Testimonial

In Celebration Assembly this week RJ Y9 received a record number of certificates and a Caught Being Good nomination. When we caught up with Ryan he had this to say: ‘I have tried really hard this week and it has paid off.’

Keep up the good work RJ!

Best Story of the Week Competition Winner

Me and my fellow writer, JG have been tasked with making the final decision on the best story written by pupils in Mr Rafferty’s class. We have looked carefully over the final three stories. It was a very tough decision for us to make as we found all three very entertaining! But the story we chose to be the winner this week is

PAUL VS ZACHARY by O.M in Mr Rafferty's Class
Here's the story for you to read.

Paul Vs Zachary

Paul is a ginger-bearded man with a face that looks like The Lorax or Garfield. He lives in London in a busy town with big buildings and a busy road. He drives a black taxi and he picks up three kids and takes them to school. Odin, Nathan and Hayden are the three kids Paul picks up. One day some angry truck driver named Zachary Taylor had an argument with him. He said "What's your problem!?" Paul said "What do you mean what's my problem?" Zachary said "You could have let that driver go past but you decided not to!" Paul said "Well where do you want me to go mate where do you want me to go?" Zachary said "Don't raise your hand at me!" Paul said sarcastically "Alright see ya have a nice day!!!" Zachary Taylor is a president of the United States. He has no facial hair, he has a white t-shirt with brown shorts and a red apron. Paul is a driver who drives too fast into people. When he crashes into someone he gets his body parts stitched together by the doctors. Zachary is an angry person who yells at people in the road all the time.

The next day, Paul is dropping them off and then he drove too fast and almost hits Abraham Lincoln's car. Abraham Lincoln is a fat man with a blue beard and blue hair. He has a black fleece and he has a belt tied around his waist.

If you'd like a chance to win next time, write a story and shoe it to us.
